

Student Sustainability Leaders Summit

Final Summit Agenda, April 18, 2014

12:00 - 12:10 Welcome and settling down for lunch, Ioulia Fenton (PhD Anthropology and president of Graduate Sustainability Group).

12:10 - 13:10 Student Sustainability Leaders 5 minute flash talks:

"Hungry for Change: Campus gardens feeding Atlanta's poor," Naomi Maisel (Emory Sophomore & Director of Volunteer Emory).

"It's Smarta to MARTA: Exposing visiting students to Atlanta's public transport," Sam Effeirt & Emma Kane (Masters in Public Health).

"Roots & Shoots: A graduate student run K-12 sustainability outreach program," Katy Renfro (PhD Neuroscience & Animal Behavior, Department of Psychology).

"Earth Day EcoTable: Building furniture using plastic trash," Lhamo Lamaocuo (Masters in Development Practice) and Melanie Aldred (Juris Doctor program).

Special video presentation from Emory's Oxford campus: "Spreading the seed of sustainability on a small campus," Malika Shettar (Marketing/Environmental Science, Goizueta Business School).

Special guest from Georgia Institute of Technology: "Using the power of business, innovation and technology to build a sustainable future," Michael Mazier (Masters in Business Administration).

"Greening Emory Point: Expanding recycling in off-campus housing," Brett Land & Branch Howard (Juris Doctor program).

"Bike Emory 2014: Space, Safety and Storage?" Chris Brown (PhD History) and Kenneth McCullough (PhD Neuroscience).

"Sustainable Fleet: The possibility of natural gas as a more sustainable fuel source for Emory's vehicle fleet," Drew Newman Smith (Environmental Studies, minor in Sustainability).

"Leading Change: Laney & GSG's Sustainable Ambassador Program," Sarah Whittaker (PhD Anthropology & Treasurer of Graduate Sustainability Group).

13:10 - 13:20 Introducing the NWF EcoLeaders Initiative, Eriqah Williams-Foreman (The National Wildlife Federation).

13:20 - 13:30 Closing remarks by Emily Cumbie-Drake (Emory's Office of Sustainability Initiatives).